Re: If Not For Grace Ministries

To whom it may concern:

I think extremely highly of Lori Driggs and If Not For Grace Ministries, and therefore it is my great pleasure to write a letter of recommendation on her behalf.

I have come to know Lori to be a passionate woman of God, seeking to provide hope and healing to women who are post-abortive. Having been involved, for several years in a post-abortive program in Florida, I find a genuine compassion in the ministry of If Not For Grace that provides great care for women who are willing to walk through the process of healing after an abortion. I have found in the many post-abortive groups that I have facilitated, it required immense dedication and care for women who needed the gentleness of a loving Savior and King. I believe that Lori Driggs exhibits the dedication, compassion and gentleness needed to be the eyes, ears, and heart of Jesus when ministering to post-abortive women.

It would be a great asset to any church, women's group or ministry, to have such a well organized, God-centered ministry provided for their women. Many women today walk in silence for fear of judgment for their past decisions. If Not For Grace Ministries will provide a safe place for women to go that will be accepting, confidential, and healing. Women will know that they are loved, forgiven, and set free in the name of Jesus.

Sincerely,

Peggy Banks
